94 Calls to Action were prepared following the Truth and Reconciliation Commission hearings. Let's use these summary statements to inform our prayers and actions. (Complete list Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada: Calls to Action.)

Justice-

30. We call upon federal, provincial, and territorial governments to commit to eliminating the overrepresentation of Aboriginal people in custody over the next decade, and to issue detailed annual reports that monitor and evaluate progress in doing so.

- 'There are racists in my police force,' top Mountie concedes
- Federal response to aboriginal corrections report 'dismissive'
- Aboriginal corrections report finds 'systemic discrimination'

31. We call upon the federal, provincial, and territorial governments to provide sufficient and stable funding to implement and evaluate community sanctions that will provide realistic alternatives to imprisonment for Aboriginal offenders and respond to the underlying causes of offending.

- March 16: End of Life conversations: A two-part series on end of life concerns will begin on March 16 @ 7:00 p.m. in the church gym. Our first guest presenter will be a Registered Nurse working with the Saskatchewan Health Authority. She will share a variety of information including Medical Assistance in Dying (MAID). The second session is planned for sometime in April (date yet to be determined) with a Palliative Care doctor who will speak about hospice care.
- March 17: Are you tired of winter? Can you hardly wait until the golf courses open? Then this announcement is for you!! We are planning an outing the evening of March 17th at the YXE Golf simulators. We will book them for two hours and the cost per person should be approximately $15.00 per person based on groups of 4. Please let Heather or Ron know if you are interested and put it in your calendar! Fore!
- April 17: We will be accepting into formal church membership some folks who are attending our services. If you are also interested in formal church membership, please speak with Garth and/or Claire.
